Lydia: So it's Thursday night, and I thought, what better to do on Thursday night than party? I've been texting Mary so she'll come out with me but she hasn't been responding so I just thought, why not go and pick her up?

[Lydia knocks]

Mary: Lydia.

Lydia: Hi, I thought you might've died.

Mary: Yeah, I'm sorry, I got your texts, I just, I didn't have time to respond.

Lydia: What are you doing right now? Wait - it doesn't matter, let's go to Carter's.

Mary: Lydia, I uh...

Lydia: It's Happy Hour, shots are two for one, plus they have water, and soda, and other stuff too.

Mary: Eddie's here, I promised him we'd hang out.

Lydia: He can come too, it'll be a party.

Mary: No, we'll party this weekend for my birthday! Remember? Plus, you have your last midterm next week! Why don't you go on and study, you've gotta ace this one.

Lydia: I don't wanna go home, I wanna go out! Home's not... my parents are just being... WHATEVER I just don't want to.

Mary: Look, I already ditched Eddie to go to the movies with you Saturday, and to the amusement park last week, I can't do it again.

Lydia: But the viewers...

Mary: It's not gonna work this time, Lydia. I'm sorry. I'll see you this weekend, okay?

[Door closes]

Lydia: You know what I realized? I don't need Mary to have fun. I can have my own adventures without her. Wherever I go, the party will follow because I am the party!

[Lydia knocks]

Jane: Lydiaâ€½

Lydia: Surprise!

Jane: Oh, ok!
