Lydia (From off screen, talking to her cat in what can only be called a "kitty voice" while petting said cat): Kitty! Aww, hi, Kitty! Hi sweet kitty! Hi! What're you doing, Kitty? Are you resting? Did you follow me to Mary's house? You follow me everywhere, don't you, Kitty? Say "Hi" to Lizzie and Jane! They miss you! Do you miss them? Do you miss home, Kitty? I miss home. I miss Lizzie and Jane but we will see them very soon, won't we?

So, Kitty, do you like Mary? Hasn't she been really nice to us? She's always so quiet and alone. She seems hurt, and I know she's crying out for help inside.

So, Kitty--Kitty!-- some of Mary's friends were being mean and making fun of her about the guy she likes, and, well, that's not very nice. So what do we do to people who are mean to the ones we love?

(Kitty bites Lydia's hand)

Lydia: Ow! That's right, Kitty Bennet. We are mean back at them.
