Lydia: You guys want to see something cool? (shows L.A. scenery) All those people down there, going about their busy glamorous lives? No idea we're up here watching them.

Jane: (enters frame) Not all of L.A. is glamorous. They're mainly just normal people like you and me.

Lydia: Please. We are not normal. We are way cooler than normal. We're YouTube stars!

Jane: (laughs) I don't know about that.

Lydia: View count doesn't lie, sis.

Jane: Well, I'm here now, so that's all you and Lizzie.

Lydia: You're really not coming back?

Jane: I don't know. I like it here. I have a good job, the people are nice, and (sighs) I'm kind of in a new stage of my life now.

Lydia: What about Bing?

Jane: He's not really a part of it. Um, not right now. (sighs) Uh, I don't know, maybe. He's not really getting back to me. But um, I'm just, I'm trying to focus on other things right now. Things that are tangible, and here, and answer my calls.

Lydia: L.A. is a great place to move on. So many hot guys.

Jane: Yes, they are very nice to look at. But, I don't know, Bing and I had something... different, special. (sighs) I thought.

Lydia: He's just a guy. How different can it be?

Jane: When you meet somebody that you, um, that you really care about, um, it's different than just casually dating. It's more than just fun. I mean, they touch something inside of you.

Lydia: (scoffs)

Jane: Don't-- stop! (sighs) You want to be with them because they make you realize you're not missing your other half. That you're just enough the way you are. Together, you're just right. When you find that, you... it's really hard to let it go.

Lydia: Sounds like a lot of drama to me. I'll take partying over carpools and heartbreak any day.

Jane: Mmm, when you meet somebody that you have real feelings for, Lizzie and I reserve the right to make fun of you for it however much we want.

Lydia: Yuck.

Jane: (laughs)

Lydia: Whatever. Ooh, can we go to that sidewalk with all the famous peoples' hand prints.

Jane: If that's what you want.

Lydia: Yessss.

Jane: (laughs)

Lydia: I know you guys are so jealous of me right now, and you totally should be. On top of the freakin' world. (pans to L.A. scenery)
