Good Enough - Ep: 29

Lydia Bennet
https://youtube.com/watch?v=I_uoHtpH-CY https://nerdfighteria.info/v/I_uoHtpH-CY

Lydia: Hey everyone. Um, George went to go visit a buddy of his from school this week, so it's just me. You know, I-- I really wasn't sure about this whole thing when we started, but... he's so great. He cooked me this ridiculous dinner at his apartment on Saturday and wouldn't let me help with anything. I mean, what guy does that? Unless he really cares.

And we talked about things. Jane. And Lizzie. And, um, I do have to tell them. It's just... not as important. What they think. You know?

He's so good. To me. He treats me like I'm... someone. I guess, um, he always puts me first, and I didn't know people really did that. I hope I can do the same for him. I mean, I'm trying. Um, I want to do that for him. I'd do anything for him. That's what you do, right? I think this is what Jane was talking about, what she had with Bing, or what she thought she had. I know it's soon, but, um, she always said that when you know, you know, and with George, I'm pretty sure I know.

I always thought family was the one thing you could count on. Solid ground or whatever. But, um, I know every movie ever always said it was about true love but that just always seemed so silly, and-- and narrow, and, um, isolating, but I think I get it now. Family's something you're born into. They don't have to... they might not always be there for you. But someone who finds you and-- and chooses you and loves you because they want to, not because they're supposed to. I mean, that's something. It's-- it's real. And I think I get it now.

I feel good enough. For somebody. For once. Is that weird? (laughs) It's really nice. (laughs) George Wickham. Who would've thought, right? Wow. Whatevs, I always knew I'd snag a sexy swimmer. All you really need is that one person who's always got your back. And I think I found mine.

I am... you know... I love you. George. Thought if his first time to say it was on camera then it would only be appropriate if mine was too. I mean, it's only fair, right? But I do. It's like we're standing on the tallest building and nothing looks like it does on the ground and nothing else matters but us. That's totally lame. I'm sorry. But I love George Wickham. (laughs) I. Love. George. Wickham. And he loves me back. (laughs) How about that? (laughs)

(outro plays)