Gigi: Hey everyone, so awesome news. Today we are going to end this fiasco, so just bear with me for one more day. Yesterday my brother managed to track down a number that he thinks belongs to... the target.

Anyway, like I said, it's only a matter of time now.

[On screen text: 'Incoming message from Fitz Williams: Couldn't do anything with the, no GPS and no one is answering.]

Gigi: Ugh. [pause] You know what, hold on. Domino, call Fitz Williams.

[calling tone]

Fitz: What's up?

Gigi: Give me the number.

Fitz: Uh, why? We don't even know if the number's legit.

Gigi: If it's not legit then what's the problem.

Fitz: Well, the problem isn't if it's not legit, the problem is if it is.

Gigi: Just, give me the number! And don't tell my brother.

Fitz: Okay, yeah that convinced me, I'm just going to get right on that.

Gigi: Fitz, come on. Just give me the number.

Fitz: No! Look, your brother and I are trying to protect you.

Gigi: I don't need protecting, I need to help find him. I can do this.

Fitz: Let me ask your brother.

Gigi: Oh, come on. You know exactly what he's going to say.

Fitz: No I don't! Okay, yeah, I do. But he's right!

Gigi: We're running out of time, Fitz! Do, do you and William even have any more cards left to play?

Fitz: Yes!

Gigi: Good ones?

Fitz: No. Okay, promise me something.

Gigi: What?

Fitz: You are not gonna call him, just text. See if he bites, and if he does, let us handle the rest. Do not- you are not talking to that man.

Gigi: Okay! Just texting, no calling, I promise.

Fitz: Fine, here it comes. Oh, and by the way, I'm still telling your brother.

Gigi: Fine, just tell him I beat you up.

Fitz: What?

Gigi: Thanks Fitz! Domino end call. Okay.

Domino message Unknown Number. Hey it's Gigi. I need to talk to you. Send message. H-he probably won't even message me back. [sigh] Domino end recording.
