(Intro)

Hey there, I am Matthew Gaydos and welcome to The Warehouse, the weekly show where we share the DFTBA warehouse with you.

Let's go ahead and get into it. It is time for New Merch News. This week's New Merch News is KarenKavetthon. Karen has a bunch of new stuff that she has designed and made and that we're selling now and that just... Everything today is about Karen Kavett.

First up in KarenKavetthon are these brand new bookplates that Karen Kavett designed that have Looking for Alaska and Fault In Our Stars themes. So those come in packs of twenty, you'll get ten of each design that you can take and you can slap in your books and let people know "Hey. That's mine."

Next up in the KarenKavetthon is Karen Kavett's jewellery. In the past we have had jewellery from Karen including these DFTBA necklaces. But she just released a bunch of new stuff including brand new ampersand necklaces in a bunch of different colors as well as a bunch of different interrobang necklaces. And there's also a brand new reblog design that comes in a bunch of different colors as well. Karen actually made a video talking about all of these and you can click here to go watch that or the link will be down in the flap as well. But of course you can go to dftba.com right now and order all of these.

And while that does it for all of the new merch this week that just of course means it's time for NerdfArt. This weeks NerdfArt comes to us from Risa who has already designed a bunch of different products for DFTBA but this week's selection is a very selfish selection. But last Saturday was my birthday and Risa made me this on Tumblr and it's just... It's really cool and I wanted to say thank you and... NerdfArt.

I also want to let you guys know that when I am searching for things to feature on NerdfArt I search through the Vlogbrothers tags and the DFTBA tag, then I look on the Nerdfighter art Tumblr, but if you want your art to be considered for NerdfArt and to be featured here on the show you can tag it now on Tumblr with NerdfArt and I'm gonna be checking that one as well.

But that does it for this week, guys. So don't forget to leave your questions and comments and something funny down in the comments below. As always, the links to every thing I talked about this week will be down in the flap. And you can find me on my channel at youtube.com/matthewgaydos or hit me up for a chat on Twitter, @MatthewGaydos. But I will see you guys next week with a brand new episode of The Warehouse and until then, don't forget to be awesome.
