(The Warehouse Intro)

Hey there, I am Matthew Gaydos and welcome to The Warehouse, the weekly show where we share the DFTBA warehouse with you.

Now usually I would jump right into new merch news but there just isn't any. But as you might be able to tell from my current hoodie wearing situation, I have an update on some things going out to you guys. So last week a UPS truck pulled up in front of the warehouse and that UPS truck was entirely filled with CTFxC hoodies. So we got this giant mountain of, like, one hundred and seventy boxes. So we took those boxes and we sorted them all out to get them ready for shipping. So the CTFxC hoodies are going to start going out today.

But that pretty much does it for today guys. But wait. Hold on. Let's look at that footage of where we stored Charles Trippy hoodies. Yeah, right there. Something seems to be missing. That something is Fort Awesome. Fort Awesome is completely disassembled, it's actually stacked up all right behind the camera. I'll turn the camera around and show you guys. So to make ways for the Charles Trippy hoodies, we did have to temporarily take down Fort Awesome. So while it is down I have a project for you guys. I want you guys to rebuild Fort Awesome and whoever builds the best Fort Awesome, I am going to give them a Fort Awesome t-shirt. So this can be a blanket fort, a box fort, a fort underneath your kitchen table, the more creative the better. So if you want to enter the rebuild Fort Awesome contest, the steps are Step 1: Build an awesome fort.

Step 2: Make sure there is a sign on your fort that says Fort Awesome. I want to make sure that you guys actually built it and didn't just go to Google and type in 'awesome fort'. And then

Step 3: You have to send it to me. So you can post it on Twitter or Tumblr using the hashtag #RebuildFortAwesome. I will be checking those for the whole next month. Your deadline is January sixteenth, one month from today, and then I will announce the winner in the January twentieth episode of The Warehouse. So go have some fun, build some forts and maybe win a t-shirt.

But that is really it for this week guys. Don't forget to leave any questions, comments and what you plan on building your fort out of down below. As always, the links to everything I talked about today will be down in the flap. And you can find me on my channel at YouTube.com/MatthewGaydos or on twitter @MatthewGaydos. And I will see you next week with another episode of The Warehouse and as always, don't forget to be awesome.
