(Switches off lights at old warehouse. Closes and locks door for the last time.)

(Intro)

Matthew: Hey there, I am Matthew Gaydos and welcome to the new warehouse. So there hasn't been an episode of The Warehouse in a month and so, wid, hey. Nice to see ya welcome back. And we are here in the new giant, echoey DFTBA warehouse. So this week is actually just a quick welcome back episode. Next week I will take you guys on a tour of the new warehouse. It's all this one giant room but there's lots of little nooks and aisles and corners and sections that we made. So next week we'll do a whole tour, there'll be a new intro next week, we'll probably have some new new merch news, we might have a new location for Fort Awesome.

And in the last episode of The Warehouse there was a little thing that some of you guys noticed, just a little thing. If you didn't see it you can go back and watch the episode and see if you notice it this time. But we'll definitely, probably address that next week.

And I can already hear some of you commenting down below 'Hey, I thought those shirts were sold out. Why are there shirts there?' and to you guys I will say they are actually sold out, we just haven't shipped them all out yet so these shirts belong to people. That one might be yours.

But that does it for this week guys. Don't forget to leave any questions and comments you may have down below. I didn't really talk about anything today but some links will probably still be in the flap. And you can always find me on my channel at YouTube.com/MatthewGaydos or on Twitter @MatthewGaydos. So I will see you next week with a brand new episode of The Warehouse and until then, don't forget to be awesome.
