Matthew: Hey there, I'm Matthew Gaydos and welcome to The Warehouse - the weekly show where we share the DFTBA Warehouse with you. So today we've got another big bunch of new products to share with you guys as well as a little tour of the murals here at the warehouse.

But first let's go ahead and get into New Merch News. So I don't have any new pre-orders for you guys this week but what I do have is a bunch of stuff that you can get right now. And actually all the new products I have to share with you guys today are brand new posters. So this is a post-rava-ganza episode of The Warehouse. Postravaganza.

And first up for you Brain Scoop fans out there there is a brand new Soon Raccoon poster. Also this week we have a brand new poster from Rhett and Link, as well as a brand new My Drunk Kitchen Poster from Hannah Hart. And rounding out the new merch news this week is a brand new Don't Forget to be Awesome poster. As you can see here its available both unsigned and signed; and the signed version is signed by both John and Hank.

So this does it for this week's new products but I do have tonnes of older pre-orders as well. If you pre-ordered the Wil Wheaton shirt that... the Don't Be A Dick, this one that's currently on my body, we've already sent these out. So if you ordered one it should be in your mailbox very soon.

So recently we received over 4 tonnes of Story War games on these palettes here and some of you guys have been asking in the comments when they're going to start going out. Well I finally have an answer for you and that is this week. Whether you pre-ordered from DFTBA.com or you pledged money to the original Story War Kickstarter campaign, your orders are going to start shipping this week. But be patient because as you can see from those palettes, there are thousands and thousands of these things to send out - but we will get these to you as quickly as possible.

Alright so a lot of you guys have been asking about the murals we have here in The Warehouse. So those of you who don't know, this half of the warehouse used to be a daycare center so there's some interesting murals on the walls round here and a lot of you guys have asked in the comments if we have any plans to paint over them. For now, the answer to that is no. I mean the murals don't really bug us that much and honestly anytime we add new shelves and stuff, we kinda cover up some of the murals anyways. So, in the case the day ever does come when we decide to paint over the murals, I would like to have a little record of them. Especially some of my favorites like the sad chicken and the train that seems to be flying through the sky in some sort of sky canoe.

So without further or do, I present to you the murals of the DFTBA warehouse.

So that does it for this week guys. Don't forget to leave any questions or comments down below as well as I would like to know what you guys' favorite part of the murals were. And as usual, all of the links to everything I talked about today will be down in the flap.

Remember you guys can always find me on my channel at YouTube.com/MatthewGaydos or hit me up for a chat on Twitter @MatthewGaydos. I will see you guys next week for another episode of The Warehouse and as always,

Mike: Don't Forget to be Awesome.
