(Intro)

Hey there, I am Matthew Gaydos and welcome to The Warehouse, the weekly show where we share the DFTBA warehouse with you.

So a lot of you guys have been asking where our new employee has been and I am happy to tell you today that they are back. Oh, I… I see you had some work done while you were gone. That, that's why you were gone so long. Well, it looks great. You guys have also been asking in the comments what the box's name is and I have finally decided and chosen my favorite. The name of our new employee is Cornelius T. Gated, Corey for short. But I need to make the rest of the video so why don't you go do some work or something. Yeah.

Now before we get into any sort of merch type news, I need to do NerdfArt because I keep forgetting to do NerdfArt so… NerdfArt. This week's NerdfArt comes to us from John Green's Moustache on Tumblr and it is this fantastic Nerdfighteria Island drawing which you need to go look at on Tumblr because there's lots of little close up images. And if you look real close, up in the top corner right there, you might see some things you recognize. There's me and there's Fort Awesome and there's the basement box with the cat from the Halloween episode. That is a very obscure Warehouse reference and I am incredibly happy to see that in a thing. So thank you to John Green's Moustache for drawing that, that's a weird sentence to say out loud, but definitely go check out the link to the Tumblr in the flap and look at that more close up-ey.

Now it is time for new merch news. We only have one piece of new merch this week and it is Liam Dryden's Coffee Intern Mug. So you can go right now to dftba.com and pre-order that.

And while that does it for new merch, I have a ton of things to tell you guys about that we shipped out this week. This week was super busy. This week alone we sent out almost 7000 orders and that included the Lizzie Bennet Diaries and we also started shipping out the TFIOS preparedness kits. And speaking of things we are currently working on shipping but take a long time, the Charles Trippy poster, the signed "We are CTFxC" poster. A lot of you guys have been emailing asking 'Hey, where's my poster?' because you guys ordered them back on April 14th, the day it was released, and I am here to tell you that there are over 5000 of these posters to send out and we have started doing so, but it's just gonna take a while, 'cause you gotta roll 'em and you gotta pack them and label them and you gotta do that 5000 times. So we have started shipping these, do not worry. Your order should be going out either this week or next week.

And the very last merch shipping update I have for you guys is the brand new Two-Faced Calf Brain Scoop shirt. It is finally here and we are going to start shipping it out this week.

But that does it for this week guys. Don't forget to leave any questions or comments you might have down in the comments section below. And the links to everything I talked about today will down in the flap and you can always find me on my channel at youtube.com/matthewgaydos or on Twitter, @MatthewGaydos And I will see you guys next week with a brand new episode of The Warehouse and until then, don't forget to be awesome.
