Hey there guys, I'm Matthew Gaydos and welcome to The Warehouse - the weekly show where we share the DFTBA warehouse with you.

We're going to go right ahead and jump into New Merch News. First up, I would like to welcome one of my personal favorite YouTubers to the DFTBA Family and that is the always lovely Gunnarolla. A while ago he put out an extremely catchy song called 'Circle Foods' that is still stuck in my head. We now have a Circle Foods shirt available for pre-order on the website and that pretty piece of Pizza pie will be shipping out at the end of this month.

Next up we have our first piece of merch from the channel Sexplanations that launched a few months ago. The host recently uploaded a fantastic video about having a want, will, wont list in your life and now you can have your very own 'Want Will Wont List' because this poster just went up for pre-order on the website and allows you fill in all of your own Want Will's and Won'ts. And the Want Will Wont List system works for lots of aspects of your life not just the sexual ones which Lindsey will explain in this video here. You can click here to watch or the link will be down in the flap as well.

The last item this week comes to you from the good folks over at Pemberley Digital. They're the ones who brought you things like the Lizzie Bennet Diaries and Welcome to Sanditon and they actually have a new series launching today called 'Emma Approved' at youtube.com/pemberleydigital, which is based on Jane Austen's novel Emma. And to celebrate the launch with a brand new Emma Approved t-shirt up for pre-order on the website.

But that about does it for this week guys. I'm really glad you guys enjoyed last week's Fort Awesome episode. As you can see, most of the fort is still standing back there. I did have to take like a third of it apart because I used boxes that we actually need for stuff and then you know I needed one at the bottom and so that led to some problems and.... Fort Awesome's defenses are pretty poor right now so... don't attack, please. That's our motto at Fort Awesome... Don't Attack, please. But a lot of you commented that you wanted Fort Awesome to continue to be a regular thing who knows maybe we can get some other people to drop in and be guests in the fort.

This week I actually remembered that we need to do a Nerdfighter Fan Art of the Week section. Maybe we'll call it Nerdfighter Fan Art Corner... Nerdfighter Art Corner. Still working on the name! But for whatever we're going to call this little section, I picked this and that is a hand sewn felt journal cover inspired by The Fault In Our Stars which was crafted by ImminentlyGinger on Tumblr.

So as usual the links to anything I talked about today will be down in the flap and remember you guys can always find me on my channel at YouTube.com/MatthewGaydos or on Twitter @MatthewGaydos. And as always.

Andrew: Don't forget to be awesome.
