Hey there, I'm Matthew Gaydos and welcome to The Warehouse - the weekly show where we share the DFTBA warehouse with you.

So this has been a super busy week here at DFTBA. We're currently working on fulfilling all of the Kickstarter perks for those of you who helped out with the Story War campaign. So that means last week a bunch of us spent most of our week putting thousands of these into thousands of these, as you can see right here. And on Friday, we had one of our biggest shipping days ever for DFTBA when we sent out over 1700 copies of Story War and so many bags that I couldn't even get them into one picture for you guys. So some of you guys in the comments and on Tumblr have said you want your own copy of Story War but you didn't know about the original Kickstarter. Well fear not because you can get your own version of the base set of Story War right now at DFTBA.com.

So let's go ahead and get into some new merch news. So its been a few weeks since VidCon now and I think most of us who didn't get to go are finally getting over our mourning period. But, if you are one of those who didn't get to go to VidCon 2013 but you still want one of these sweet VidCon 2013 shirts, good news - you can now buy them over at DFTBA.com.

In other exciting new merch news this week marked the debut of a bunch of new This Star Won't Go Out merchandise. Now we've had the green star won't go out shirt up on the website for a while but this week we put up a purple Esther shirt that you guys can also get. Also this week we got a couple new This Star Won't Go Out posters. Now, what's cool about these is they are being offered in both signed and unsigned versions. At VidCon, a bunch of your favorite YouTubers went and signed a bunch of these at random, so if you order a signed one, you can get a random autograph from Charlie McDonnell, NanaLew and Meekakitty, Nanalew and Charlie, Meekakitty, some of the Lizzie Bennet Diaries cast, Kristina Horner, Meghan Tonjes and there's even more. Remember guys, proceeds from the This Star Won't Go Out merchandise, including this bracelet here, go to the This Star Won't Go Out Foundation - an organization founded by Esther's family to benefit families of children with cancer and other projects in Esther's memory.

So that's it for this week guys. Don't forget to leave any questions, comments, product suggestions, whatever you want, down below and next week I'm going to try and answer a bunch of you guys' questions. So if you have any questions about DFTBA, the warehouse or products on the website, just leave them down below and I will try to get to them next week.

As usual, All of the links to everything I talked about today will be down in the flap and remember you can always find me on my channel YouTube.com/MatthewGaydos or hit me up for a chat on Twitter @MatthewGaydos. So I will see you guys next Monday for another episode of The Warehouse and as always, don't forget to be awesome.
