(Intro)

Hey there, I am Matthew Gaydos and welcome to The Warehouse, the weekly show where we share the DFTBA warehouse with you.

And I know what you're gonna say: "It's not the weekly show, you haven't been here in two months!" and that's, that's true. I apologize on behalf of me, myself and I. I haven't made a video here on this channel in almost two months! And basically it's just been, I've been busy with the P4A and the Black Friday and the Pizzamas and Christmas and all that holiday-type cheer stuff and sending this stuff to you guys as quickly as possible and I just didn't have time to make this video, but I'm back now and, uh, I'm sorry. I'm back. That's, that's the gist of things.

And since the last time I have seen you guys there has been a bunch of new things added to the website that you should go and scroll and click through and find all the new fun things because I can't fit all of them quite in this video, but I will fit as many as I can in a segment we like to call New Merch News.

First up in New Merch News we have two brand new shirts on pre-order right now from MinuteEarth and the first one is this one here, the MinuteEarth logo and the second one is the Descent of Man and both of these shirts are printed on eco-friendly organic material that you can pre-order right now at the link down in the flap.

Next up we have one of my favorite products that DFTBA has ever released, and that's saying a lot because this stuff is cool, but I gotta new cool thing. And it is this beanie, I like it a lot. It says DFTBA all around it and it's stitched in and it's yarn and it's cool and I like it. I like it a lot. So if you want one of these lovely things to decorate your cranium with, go ahead to the link down in the flap and you can order one and I will ship it to you. Not this one, this one's mine. I'll ship you one of the ones over there in a box.

And next in New Merch News we have two brand new mugs. This one is from Mike Falzone and says "Hey!! Shhh Don't" and this one comes from Elliott Morgan and says "I like to be left alone between the hours of 8 A.M. and always". And these are both available right now on dftba.com.

Also new on dftba.com is this adorable Otis plush inspired by The Frogman's dog Otis. And he might look like a mild mannered dog by day, but by night and with the assistance of included accessories, he can become... Super Otis. Ba ba ba! So you know what you've gotta do if you want to pick up Otis and his little accessories here, you go to the link down in the flap and that's where it is.

Also up on the website are these brand new Alli Speed Drunk Gaming shirts that come in black, brown, and blue.

And while that does it for all of the New Merch News, I do have some other merch related news, like hey, all the VidCon merch is now only $5 if you want a shirt or a poster or any of these things they're only $5 apiece.

Also coming up just around the corner is Valentine's Day, it's like, ooh man, like less than a month away. But do not fret if you are ill prepared for Valentine's Day because we can help you out. Up right now on the website we have this five pack of nerdy Valentines available for you or, if you want, you can buy them in a 25 pack and get five of each. And they include lovely nerdy sayings like "My love for you has no edge", "I think you are awwwwww-some!", "I like you almost as much as I like pizza", "Infatuate", and, of course, giraffe love. So whether you want to send them to a friend or a partner or someone you're just in nerdfighter-like with, you better hurry up 'cause Valentine's Day is coming up real soon. So go ahead and pick up the five pack or, like I said, they also come in a 25 pack which would, of course, be 5 of each one.

And last, but certainly not least, this week I am brewing up a big, ol' NerdfArt. That'll make more sense in a second. These are amazing Fault In Our Stars inspired lattes that are dyed blue by brrritani.tumblr.com. And I like it a lot because it's NerdfArt you can consume and as we all know, the best kind of NerdfArt is the NerdfArt you can put in your mouth. So go to the Tumblr link down in the flap if you want to say to Britani ans just give her some notes and some likes and just say "Hey, thanks a latte for your NerdfArt."

But that does it for this week, guys, so don't forget to leave your questions and your comments and the favorite thing that you got for the holidays - no, scratch that, changing my mind. Post your favorite thing that you bought for somebody else over the holidays down in the comments below. And as always, the links to every single thing I talked about this week will be down in the flap. And you can always find me on my channel at youtube.com/matthewgaydos or hit me up for a chat on Twitter, @MatthewGaydos. And I will see you guys next week with a brand new episode of The Warehouse, I promise. But until then, don't forget to be awesome.
