(The Warehouse intro)

Hey there, I am Matthew Gaydos and welcome to The Warehouse, the weekly show where we share the DFTBA warehouse with you.

We are gonna go right ahead and jump into new merch news. First up this week we have a couple of new from a past warehouse guest Andrew Huang. You can now get his 2012 album Love and Desolation up on dftba.com and it is available on CD or on vinyl and it is on this beautiful clear vinyl and I am definitely going to be getting one of these myself.

Next up we've got four new necklaces that feature quotes from John Green books. And all four of these necklaces were designed by Nerdfighter Kyrsten, so go check those out. There are three quotes from The Fault in Our Stars and the fourth one is from Looking for Alaska.

And lastly this week, we have a brand new t-shirt up for pre-order on the website and that I this brand new shirt from Tab for a Cause which says 'Surf the web, save the world'. And for those of you who don't know what Tab for a Cause is, it is a non-profit organization that uses a browser extension to raise money for charity. So you download the browser extension, you open tabs on your browser and boom, you're helping charities. So check out Tab for a Cause and pick up the t-shirt because the proceeds from the shirt go to help them pay for the server cost which then in turn helps out charities because you get to help Tab for a Cause keep doing what they're doing.

And now it is time to reveal the winner of the Rebuild Fort Awesome contest. There were so many amazing forts. I was really blown away, not by just the number of people who entered but also the time and energy you guys put into your forts. I loved looking at all the pictures on Twitter and Tumblr. Some of you guys really went above and beyond what I was ever expecting. But there can be only one winner, and that winner is Teri otherwise known as @Tardisgirl150 on Twitter. Teri and her friend spent an hour and a half out in the cold building an amazing snow Fort Awesome. So you can click here to go watch Teri's video of her building her own Fort Awesome. And I just wanted to say again thank you to all of you guys who entered, it was really very hard to pick a winner amongst all the amazing forts.

But that does it for this week, guys. Don't forget to leave your questions and comments down below. As always, the links to everything I talked about today will be down in the flap. And you can always find me on my channel at YouTube.com/MatthewGaydos or on Twitter @MatthewGaydos. So I will see you guys next week for another episode of The Warehouse and as always, don't forget to be awesome.
