Hey there, I am Matthew Gaydos and welcome to The Warehouse, the weekly show where we share the DFTBA Warehouse with you.
Quick pick a hand! Good choice. New merch news. We have two brand new Good Hello shirts from Alli speed on the website right now for pre-order that you should definitely go check out like right now, go check them out.

I'll wait here. Open another tape type in DFTBA.com scroll down a little bit and then right there you'll see on the front page the black and the gray you can choose whichever color you'd like. You can pre-order them and they'll ship out around early November and I'm gonna trust you all just did that and now close that tab that's covering my face. Come back ah there you are I see you, hey, nice to see you again.

Let's move on. Get you can't guess what was in the other hand, NerdfArt. This weeks NerdfArt is another permanent installation of NerdfArt. Effervescentjess on Tumblr got a John Green inspired Tattoo which things from Looking for Alaska, An Abundance of Katherines, and Paper Towns and The Fault in Our Stars and just it's really cool!

That was too Hanky. I'm gonna dial that back, but it's really cool and you should go on tumblr and let Jess know you saw it and reblog it and like it and make John see the thing.

And one last thing I wanted to mention before we go this week is that I made a new playlist for you guys who might be newer to this warehouse channel thing we got going on here.

Obviously so many of these videos were just talking about merch and the merch that comes out that week and whats' being shipped that week and so it's not entirely re-watchable say a year from now. Because that merch may not exist anymore, maybe sold out or who knows what but there's gonna be a playlist now of videos I consider the kind of the essential warehouse videos. There'll be the life of the DFTBA order video I made or the Halloween episodes and our first episode with the box employee and those kind of things. Al the little fun in jokes and recurring characters and Steph.

So if you're newer to this thing or just wanna rewatch some of the old fun warehouse videos, click that playlist and it'll take you to it because that's how links work.

Alright but that does it for this week guys don't forget to leave your questions and your comments and really just a funny word. The funniest word you can think of, leave it down in the comments below. But of course all of the links to every single thing I talked about this week will be down in the flap and you could find me on my channel at youtube.com/mathewgaydos or on twitter @mathewgaydos

So I will see you next week with a brand new episode of the warehouse and until then Don't Forget To Be Awesome.
