(The Warehouse Intro)

Hey there, I am Matthew Gaydos and welcome to The Warehouse, the weekly show where we share the DFTBA warehouse with you.

First up, last week I told you guys about all of the boxes we've been getting and those boxes contain thousands of things that we are shipping out to you. And now that we've started shipping those things I can finally tell you what they are. Contained in those hundreds and hundreds of boxes were the CTFxC ribbon shirts. So these are starting to go out, but there are thousands and thousands and thousands of these things to go out, so please be patient. We are working as hard and fast as possible to get these out to you. But over the next couple of weeks we should have all of them sent out.

Also in we just shipped things to you news, some of the Project for Awesome perks have started going out and the first ones to go out were the men and women of YouTube calendars. So most of these have shipped already and should be hanging on your wall very soon.

And now it's time for something that I feel like I haven't said in a really long time, it's time for new merch news. The first thing I want to tell you guys about this week is that the Nerdfighter Valentines are back this year. You can get a five pack which has one of each design or you can get the twenty-five pack which you smart people may have realized means you get five of each design. So pick those up and send those out to the people that you want to be in nerdfighter like with.

And now it's time for a very special part of new merch news, it's time for Postravaganza 2. That's right, I have a bunch of new posters to tell you guys about this week. First up, since we already talked about Project for Awesome, this poster is up for sale on the website right now for pre-order. And this poster here contains the thumbnails of every single video that was submitted to Project for Awesome this year. And just like the perks from Project for Awesome, proceeds from this poster go to the Foundation to Decrease World Suck.

The next poster is this Fault in Our Stars inspired design created by nerdfighter Sarah and that is also up for pre-order right now on the website.

And lastly this week, you guys remember a while back that I told you about Yasminwithane on Tumblr and this Fault in Our Stars poster that she made which we've been selling for a while now. Well she has made four new poster inspired by John Green's other works. There's An Abundance of Katherines, there's Looking for Alaska, there's a Paper Towns and there's also a Will Grayson Will Grayson. So all four of these new posters are up on the website right now for pre-order. And if you order all five of the posters together, you're gonna save ten bucks.

But that does it for this week guys. Don't forget to leave your questions and comments down below. As always, the links to every single thing I talked about today will be down in the flap. And you can always find me on my channel at YouTube.com/MatthewGaydos or on Twitter @MatthewGaydos.

And just a reminder that the Rebuild Fort Awesome contest is still going on and you only have until January sixteenth to submit your fort and have a chance to win one of these Fort Awesome t-shirts.

So I will see you next week with another episode of The Warehouse and as always, don't forget to be awesome.
