Hey there, I am Matthew Gaydos and welcome to The Warehouse, the weekly show where we share the DFTBA warehouse with you.

First up I want to tell you guys about a few items that have started shipping out and should be in your mailboxes very soon. A few weeks ago I told you about these four posters inspired by John Green's books and I am happy to report that these four posters are in the warehouse and if you pre-order them, they're already on their way to you.

Also, those of you who ordered the Charles and Alli signed poster will be happy to hear that we got them in and they have started going out already.

And for those of you guys who helped out Project for Awesome, first of all thank you, and second of all those of you who got a certain Fault in Our Stars movie poster perk should be extremely excited because look what we got. Now these have started going out already. Some of you guys should be getting them this week. But there are over 5000 of those to send so be patient and yours should be on its way soon.

And now the time has come my friends to announce the new merch news again.

(Singing) Posters, posters, we have gotten just so many posters.

That's what I've got for you this week. Three new posters are on the horizon and they are all available to pre-order or order right now on the website. First there is this perfectly punny poster that says 'Maybe okay can be our owl-ways'. Owl-ways.

Secondly, we have a signed poster from Carrie Hope Fletcher that says 'We are pirates at sea with the world at our feet sailing on waves of stars'. And that is signed by Carrie. On a side note, Carrie's Hopeful shirt has been restocked on the website so if you've been waiting to order that you can go ahead and click that or the link down in the flap and that'll take you to that.

And the last poster we have this week comes to you from T. Michael Martin, author of The End Games as well as the guy who brought us the Hoverboard Champion shirt. And this is a poster that gamers will really appreciate and it says 'Everything not saved will be lost'.

Oh, and the very, very last thing this week, I wanted to remind you guys that Valentine's Day is coming up and how are you going to properly celebrate Valentine's Day without Nerdfighter Valentines. You need Nerdfighter Valentines so you can send to that person that you've got a crush on, so you can fall in love and you can take all the couple selfies and post them all to Tumblr and people are all like "Dawhh, ship, OTP" and then you'll live happily ever after. But none of that happens without Nerdfighter Valentines. That's just scientifically accurate I'm pretty sure. No? Alright. Regardless, you're gonna want these and your crush is gonna want them from you.

But that does it for this week, guys. Don't forget to leave any questions or comments down below. As always, the links to everything I talked about today will be down in the flap. And you can always find me on my channel at YouTube.com/MatthewGaydos or on Twitter @MatthewGaydos. So I will see you guys next week with another episode of The Warehouse and as always, don't forget to be awesome.
