Hey there, I am Matthew Gaydos and welcome to The Warehouse, the weekly show where we share the DFTBA warehouse with you.

I have just a bunch of new exciting merch so let's just get into this. First up, in adorable new merch news is the stuffed Hanklerfish. This thing's just fluffy and squishy and fun to play with. It is six inches tall and you can pre-order it right now at dftba.com and it will ship out to you around the middle of this month.

Next up we have a few items that I am very excited about because it combines things that I like a lot and that is Doctor Who and DFTBA. These are four new shirts with a bunch of different quotes on them all written in Gallifreyan, the language of the Time Lords. We have the purple one that says 'My thoughts are stars I can't fathom into constellations'. We have the blue one that says 'Maybe okay will be our always'. We have the maroon that says 'Some infinities are bigger than other infinities' and then we have the black that just says 'Don't forget to be awesome'. So for you Time Lords out there, these four shirts are up for pre-order right now on the website.

And in other new shirt news, we have a brand new limited edition ROFL QuadCopter shirt from Charles Trippy. This is a limited time offer, this shirt will never be printed ever again. So if you want one or all four of these QuadCopter shirts make sure to order it right now because it's only available until February 9th and then after that, never available again.

And now for a segment that I've been forgetting the last few weeks and that is NerfArt. Today's NerdfArt comes from Inviviaty, Inviviaty, Inviviaty, Inviviaty (pronounced differently each time). This thing dot Tumblr dot com (inviviaty.tumblr.com). But they made this incredible 'That's the thing about pain. It demands to be felt' image that I really, really liked and I thought I would share it with you guys as part of NerdfArt.

And lastly this week I actually have some news about these videos here. The next two weekends I am going to be out of town and then the weekend I come back, there's very good reasons that I'm not going to be able to make a Warehouse video. So that actually means that there will not be another Warehouse video until March 3rd, one month from today. But be excited because when we come back it's going to be bigger and better and just different in a good way. We might even get to see the return of a certain fort.

But that does it for this week, guys. Don't forget to leave any questions and comments you have down below. As always, the links to every single thing I talked about today will be down in the flap. And you can always find me on my channel at YouTube.com/MatthewGaydos or on Twitter @MatthewGaydos. So I will see you guys next month with a new episode of The Warehouse and until then, don't forget to be awesome.
