Rachel: Walking into the warehouse. This is Caenaan. April 1st means you get to wear shorts, apparently.

Caenaan: Yes!

R: Ah!

(Intro)

R: Good morning everyone. It is April 1st. We are going to do VEDA but not really. We're more like doing VEBDA which means that we'll be doing a video every day, every business day, so don't come back on Saturday and Sunday. You will see different things throughout the warehouse throughout this month. You can ask us questions, you'll hear me and Caenaan banter back and forth. We wanted to bring the warehouse to you guys 'cause it's fun and we love working for DFTBA. No Gaydos, but maybe, I don't know. I don't want to get your hopes up.

So we just got a shipment in of something. What is it? It's orange Saran wrap!

C: Oh yeah.

R: Hey guys. Guess what came in today. It's the DFTBA leggings! These are the leggings, they're pretty cool. See, you can run all around in them and do your jogging thing. If you didn't guess, you can get them now.

What would the tagline be for your dog makeup line?

C: Or grooming company?

R: Or grooming company.

C: Something to make your dogs look pretty. It would be "Make your canine look like a ten".

R: Nice!

C: That's pretty solid.

R: Tune in every business day and you'll see what the warehouse is like and all the cool things. Alright, don't forget to be awesome.
